

International Women's Day

To commemorate International Women's Day, women's grievance cell of our institute organized a special guest talk by Mrs. Rajashree Jainapur, KAS (Senior Scale Officer), on 7th March 2026 to highlight the importance of women's empowerment, leadership, and equal representation in society. The program aimed to inspire students and staff by emphasizing the role of women in governance, education, and nation building.

The guest speaker shared her valuable insights and experiences from her administrative career. The program began by welcome address and introduction of the guest speaker by Dr Ramya Pai, Incharge of Women's Grievance cell

Addressing the gathering, Smt Rajashree Jainapur spoke about the significant role women play in administrative offices of the government and how their participation contributes to effective governance, inclusive policies, and balanced decision-making.

During her talk, Mrs. Jainapur highlighted the importance of education for girls, emphasizing that education is the most powerful tool that enables women to become independent, confident, and capable of contributing meaningfully to society. She encouraged students to pursue education with dedication and to view learning as a foundation for achieving their dreams.

She also stressed the need for greater representation of women in all sectors, including administration, politics, science, business, and social leadership. According to her, equal participation of women leads to stronger institutions and more equitable development in society.

The session was highly interactive and inspiring, leaving a positive impact on both students and staff. The talk not only celebrated the achievements of women but also reinforced the importance of gender equality, education, and leadership opportunities for women.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks, by Dr Preeti Astagi, expressing gratitude to Mrs. Rajashree Jainapur for her enlightening address and for motivating the audience with her experiences and guidance. The event was graced by Vice Principal, Dr Preeti Khusugal, IQAC cell in-charge Dr Vijayalakshmi kotrashetti, Women's Grievance cell members Dr Madhu Pujar, Dr Sheetal Sanikop, teaching staffs and under-graduate students.
